History

It all began back in 1966, When a German named Eddie Schoenborn made his dream come true. For many years his dream was to own a restaurant and along with his wife Gina they finally opened The Little Babaria Restaurant on 4th Avenue in Port Alberni. The rest as we say is local history.

Most people in the Alberni valley are very familiar with the wonderful service from the staff and many of whom have been with The Little Babaria for many years and of course the cuisine is unforgettable. Ana is the chef and has been since 1983.

People come from all over to sample the same great Schnitzels. Kathy, and their staff continue to enjoy serving you in this very nostalgic and popular restaurant.

Please feel free to leave any comments or concerns about the food, service and staff in our comment box.
